

Personal Information Protection Policy

Nippon Mirai Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) recognizes the importance of personal information entrusted to us by our customers, complies with laws and regulations related to the protection of personal information, and makes every effort to manage and protect it appropriately.

1. Acquisition of Personal Information

The Company will obtain personal information from customers within the scope necessary for inquiries, requests for materials, and the provision of various services.

2. Purpose of Use of Personal Information

We will use the personal information we obtain for the following purposes:

- Responding to inquiries
- Providing information about products and services
- Sending materials and contacting customers
- Analyzing and improving services
- Other responses necessary for the Company's business operations

3. Management of Personal Information

The Company will take appropriate security measures to prevent unauthorized access, leakage, loss, destruction, falsification, or alteration of personal information.

4. Provision to Third Parties

Except as required by law, the Company will not provide personal information to any third party without the individual's consent.

5. Disclosure, Correction, Deletion of Personal Information

If you request disclosure, correction, or deletion of your personal information, we will respond appropriately in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

6. Compliance with Laws and Continuous Improvement

The Company will comply with laws and regulations related to the protection of personal information and will continuously improve our management system.

7. Contact Window

For inquiries regarding the handling of personal information, please contact us through the inquiry form on our website.